Notification Waiver Determination

Nuveen – Schroders

Acquisition	Pantheon LLC (Pantheon), a wholly owned special purpose vehicle of Nuveen, LLC (Nuveen), applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed acquisition of the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Schroders plc (Schroders), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition). Following completion, Nuveen will hold 100% of the issued share capital of Schroders and will have sole control of Schroders.
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	15 May 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Pantheon, is a wholly owned special purpose vehicle of Nuveen. Nuveen is the asset manager for, and wholly owned by, the Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association of America (TIAA). Nuveen is US-headquartered and offers a comprehensive range of investment solutions designed to secure the long-term financial goals of institutional and individual investors. Nuveen has ~AUD 2.17 trillion (~USD 1.4 trillion) in AUM as of 31 December 2025 – with approximately 93.5% in the Americas, 4% in Europe, the Middle East, and Africa (EMEA) and 2.5% in Asia-Pacific (APAC). TIAA is a New York stock life insurance company that provides secure retirements and outcome-focused investment solutions primarily to US-based individuals and institutions. TIAA has ~AUD 2.33 trillion (~USD 1.5 trillion) in assets under management (AUM), and administration and total statutory capital of ~AUD 74.4 billion (~USD 48 billion) as of 31 December 2025. The target, Schroders is a UK-based global investment manager which provides active asset management, wealth management and investment solutions. Schroders had ~AUD 1.68 trillion (~GBP 824 billion) of AUM as of 31 December 2025, with 12% in the Americas, 64% in EMEA and 25% in APAC. Schroders operates three core business divisions: Public Markets, Wealth Management, and Schroders Capital, which focuses on private markets, including private equity and real estate. Both Nuveen and Schroders supply asset management services to customers in Australia.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information currently before it, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular: a. the parties' combined share in the supply of asset management services to customers in Australia is low b. there are alternative suppliers of asset management services to customers in Australia c. there is a low risk of foreclosure or other concerning vertical or conglomerate effects resulting from exclusionary conduct, bundling or tying of asset management and wealth management services post-acquisition. The ACCC has also had regard to the likelihood that, if the Acquisition were put into effect, the notification thresholds determined under section 51ABP(1) of the Act would apply. While the ACCC considers that the notification thresholds are likely to be met, given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
