Notification Waiver Determination

Influence Media Partners – assets of Anthem Entertainment

Acquisition	Influence X Music III, L.P., an investment vehicle of Influence Media Partners, applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed acquisition of a catalogue of music publishing rights and recorded music rights, together with assigned contracts, accounts receivables, pre-paid royalties, and other rights typically associated with owning similar copyright interests (Target Assets) of Anthem Entertainment L.P. and Anthem Entertainment (GP) Inc. (together, Anthem), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	2 September 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Influence Media Partners, is based in New York, and operates as an asset manager in music, investing in and managing music rights and related assets. The Acquisition of the Target Assets by Influence Media Partners is in collaboration with funds and accounts managed by BlackRock Financial Management, Inc. (BlackRock). The vendor, Anthem, is based in Toronto, and operates as a music publisher, which primarily involves owning and acquiring rights in musical compositions, the marketing and exploitation of those rights and generating revenue (including the receipt of royalties or fees) from uses of the musical composition itself. Influence Media Partners and Anthem are both active in the music publishing industry globally, including in Australia, and overlap in the supply of music recording services and music publishing services.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information provided in the application, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition given: a. the parties' combined share in the supply of music recording and music publishing services in Australia is low and the increase in shares of supply arising from the Acquisition would be small

	b. there are alternative suppliers of music recording and music publishing services in Australia and globally. In these circumstances, the ACCC does not consider it necessary to reach a concluded view on the likelihood of the notification thresholds being met. Given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.

Determination made by Commissioner Williams pursuant to a delegation under section 25(1) of the Act