Notification Waiver Determination

Iris Capital – Revesby Pacific Hotel and Crown Hotel

Acquisition	Iris Capital Holdings Pty Ltd (Iris Capital) applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed acquisition of two entertainment and gaming pubs in Revesby, New South Wales – Revesby Pacific Hotel and Crown Hotel – as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	12 August 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Iris Capital, is an Australian development and hospitality group that owns and operates various Australian pubs, hotels, and casinos. It owns pubs and hotels across New South Wales (NSW), Queensland, Northern Territory (NT), Australian Capital Territory (ACT), and Victoria. It also owns and operates Casino Canberra in the ACT and Lasseters in the NT. Revesby Pacific Hotel is a licensed pub featuring a bar, Cellarbrations bottle shop, and electronic gaming (colloquially, pokie) machines, with a total of 24 gaming machine entitlements (GMEs) and one poker machine permit (PMP). Crown Hotel is a licensed pub offering a bar, Thai restaurant, TAB facilities, and pokie machines, with a total of 28 GMs and two PMPs. The vendors of the target venues are Redcape Hotel Group Pty Ltd and MAHF Custodian Pty Ltd (together, Redcape) which are part of the Redcape Fund. The Redcape Fund is part of MA Financial Group, an ASX-listed global alternative asset manager specialising in private credit, real estate, and hospitality based in Sydney, NSW. The Redcape Fund portfolio owns and operates community pubs and hotels in NSW, Queensland, and Victoria.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application, and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information currently before it, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular: a. the parties' combined shares of supply of on-premises liquor, dining, and gaming services, as well as the retail supply of takeaway packaged liquor, within the local area surrounding the target venues are estimated to be low and the increment arising from the Acquisition is expected to be small b. there are alternative providers of the relevant goods and services in the local area and in the City of Canterbury Bankstown area more broadly. In these circumstances, the ACCC does not consider it necessary to reach a concluded view on the likelihood of the notification thresholds being met. Given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
