

Notification Waiver Determination

Allied Retail Finance – automotive retail finance assets of Macquarie Leasing

Acquisition	Allied Retail Finance Pty Ltd (Allied Retail Finance), a wholly owned subsidiary of Allied Credit Pty Ltd (Allied Credit), applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed acquisition of automotive loans and leases originated by Macquarie Leasing Pty Limited and other associated assets (including all legal and equitable interests in the data and records relating to the loan assets) held by Macquarie Leasing Pty Limited, Macquarie Bank Limited and the trustee of the SMART B Trust (together, Macquarie), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	11 May 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	Allied Credit was established in 2010 and provides motorcycle, marine, recreation and automotive finance solutions to vehicle and equipment businesses, original equipment manufacturers and distributor dealer networks and their customers in Australia. Allied Credit's product range includes retail consumer, commercial, and wholesale floorplan finance, as well as novated leases. Macquarie is a global financial services group operating in asset management, retail and business banking, wealth management, as well as advisory, and risk and capital solutions across debt, equity, financial markets and commodities. Macquarie has ceased originating retail automotive financing loans. Macquarie's staged exit from the automotive finance industry began in 2021 (Macquarie will continue to service a small portfolio of ongoing car loans but ceased new car loan originations in April 2024). Prior to its exit, Macquarie provided car loans, asset finance, and novated leasing to personal and business clients.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information provided in the application, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular:

	a. there is a small horizontal overlap between Allied Credit and Macquarie in the supply of retail automotive finance in Australia b. there are alternative suppliers of retail automotive finance in Australia. In these circumstances, the ACCC does not consider it necessary to reach a concluded view on the likelihood of the notification thresholds being met. Given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
