Deadline to respond: 12 October 2026

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) is currently assessing TurOSI Pty Ltd (TurOSI)'s proposed acquisition of 100% of the issued shares in Cordina Food Group (HoldCo) Pty Ltd (Cordina) (the Acquisition)

For further information about the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, see the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The ACCC is assessing the impact of the Acquisition on competition and is seeking your views. The ACCC invites you to provide submissions or information in response to the questions below by 12 October 2026 via email to mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Submission re: TurOSI- Cordina. The ACCC must complete its assessment within strict statutory timelines which also impacts the time available for consultation.

If you would prefer to speak to a member of the ACCC case team, please email mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Request for call re: TurOSI - Cordina. Someone from the case team will contact you to find a suitable time for a call.

Please note that:

- This request is made in accordance with section 51ABZZD(2)(a) and (c) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). This means that while the ACCC may take into account submissions or information received after the due date, it is not required to do so.
- In responding to the questions below or when providing a submission, please highlight and/or mark any confidential information and indicate why the information is confidential (as brief reasons in footnotes in your response or submission, or in a separate document such as the ACCC's general confidentiality claims template). The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are outlined at the end of this document.

Questions

1. Provide a brief description of your business or organisation, including any commercial relationships with TurOSI and/or Cordina.

Questions for buyers of wholesale processed chicken meat

2. Identify the factors you consider when choosing a supplier of processed chicken meat. Include in your response whether procurement is conducted nationally, by state or by groups of site(s), and whether the location of your site(s) affects which suppliers are considered. Which suppliers do you normally approach or would be invited to quote for your requirements?

3. Identify any constraints that may limit your ability to switch to different producers of wholesale processed chicken meat. In your response include whether other suppliers of wholesale chicken meat can meet your volume requirements, or any other relevant requirements. Have you switched suppliers in the last three years? If so, between which suppliers and why?

4. Based on your experience, do TurOSI and Cordina compete for your business or the same customers? Please provide examples.

5. Have you ever considered TurOSI and Cordina as potential suppliers for the same processed chicken meat requirement? If so, please describe the locations, products and volumes involved in the process and any other suppliers that you considered.

Questions for suppliers of wholesale processed chicken meat

6. Identify any primary or secondary chicken meat processing facilities you operate. In your response, please include the location of your facilities and the geographic areas that you distribute to (for example nationally or within particular states or regions).

7. Are there limits on the geographic areas that you can supply? If so, please include in your response what influences this, for example transport cost, perishability, customer preference.

8. Have you competed, and would you expect to compete in future, with TurOSI and/or Cordina for the same customers? If so, please identify the relevant customer segments, products and geographic areas.

9. Do you currently have available capacity to increase supply of processed chicken meat? If so, please estimate the nature and scale of that capacity, the timeframe within which it could be utilised, and whether it could be directed towards customers currently supplied by TurOSI and/or Cordina.

General

10. Outline any concerns regarding the impact of the Acquisition on competition.

11. Provide any additional information or comments that you consider relevant to the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition.

Confidentiality of responses

During the ACCC's assessment of a notified acquisition, the ACCC may receive information that is properly regarded as being confidential, and which is provided to the ACCC in confidence. The ACCC is committed to treating this information responsibly and in accordance with the law. The ACCC understands the importance of confidentiality to parties involved in a notified acquisition, as well as to third parties that provide information to the ACCC.

The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of the confidential information consistent with the ACCC's statutory functions
- confidential information may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the information as confidential, and
- the ACCC may disclose the confidential information to other third parties if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the Act. This includes disclosures made in the performance of official duties or functions, which include transparency requirements which are part of the merger control regime.

For further information on confidentiality, see the ACCC's confidentiality quick guide.
