

Karmo – Simplr

MN-15030

Phase 1 Determination

Acquisition may be put into effect

10 September 2026

1. Determination and statement of reasons

Notified acquisition	Karmo Holdings Pty Ltd (Karmo)’s proposed acquisition of 100% of the shares in Submo Pty Ltd (trading under the name Simplr) (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABZE(1) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition may be put into effect.
Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Karmo, supplies vehicle subscription services for new vehicles in Australia from its hubs in metropolitan areas (including Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Perth and Adelaide). Karmo is a subsidiary of Autoleague Pty Ltd (Autoleague). Autoleague is an automotive retail company which owns and operates motor vehicle dealerships across Australia. The target, Simplr, supplies vehicle subscription services for used vehicles across Australia (in Sydney and regional New South Wales, Melbourne, Brisbane, Perth, Adelaide and Tasmania). Simplr is a wholly owned subsidiary of Eagers Automotive Limited (Eagers), an automotive retail group which owns and operates motor vehicle dealerships across Australia.
Overlap between the Parties	The parties overlap in the supply of vehicle subscription services in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Perth and Adelaide.
Reasons for determination	When making a determination in Phase 1, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) undertakes a competition assessment and considers whether it is appropriate for an acquisition to be approved or subject to further assessment in Phase 2 in accordance with section 51ABZJ of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). In doing so, the ACCC must have regard to the object of the Act and all relevant matters, including the interests of consumers. For more information about the ACCC’s approach to considering notified acquisitions, see the ACCC’s merger assessment guidelines and interim merger process guidelines. In conducting its competition assessment, the ACCC has considered the information and documents that were submitted with the notification form and information from third parties and publicly available information. The ACCC has determined that the Acquisition may be put into effect as it considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in any market. In reaching its decision, and based on the material before it, the ACCC makes the following findings. the Parties would continue to face competition from alternative suppliers of vehicle subscription services, including from vehicle rental companies who offer subscription services.
Applications for review	A notifying party, or other person who has been allowed to do so by the Australian Competition Tribunal, may apply for review if they are dissatisfied with the determination. Pursuant to section 100C of the Act, applications for review of the determination are to be made to the Australian Competition Tribunal before the end of 14 calendar days after this statement of reasons was included on the ACCC's Acquisitions Register. To confirm whether there has been any application for review, please contact the Australian Competition Tribunal.
