AUSTRALIAN COMPETITION & CONSUMER COMMISSION

Camp Australia - Jabiru

MN - 15048

Phase 1 Determination

Acquisition may be put into effect

12 November 2026

1. Determination and statement of reasons

Notified acquisition	CAMP Australia Pty Ltd's (Camp Australia) proposed acquisition of 20 outside school hours care (OSHC) businesses and their associated assets from Jabiru Community Services Limited (Jabiru) by way of asset sale (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABZE(1) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition may be put into effect.
Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Camp Australia, is a Victoria-headquartered, national for-profit OSHC services provider, delivering before school care, after school care, pupil free day care and vacation care programmes to primary school-aged children in all states and territories. Camp Australia provides services at approximately 442 schools across Australia, including 68 schools in Queensland. Camp Australia is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of CA Group Holdco Pty Ltd, which is owned by a consortium of private investment funds led by Allegro Funds. The target, Jabiru, is a not-for-profit organisation headquartered in Bracken Ridge Queensland and provides OSHC programmes to primary-school aged children in South-East Queensland. Jabiru currently provides OSHC and vacation care programmes at 22 schools in Queensland, 20 of which are the subject of the Acquisition.
Relevant areas of competition	Camp Australia and Jabiru horizontally overlap in the supply of OSHC services and the supply of vacation care services for state schools in Queensland.
Reasons for determination	When making a determination in Phase 1, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) undertakes a competition assessment and considers whether it is appropriate for an acquisition to be approved or subject to further assessment in Phase 2 in accordance with section 51ABZJ of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). In doing so, the ACCC must have regard to the object of the Act and all relevant matters, including the interests of consumers. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notified acquisitions, see the ACCC's merger assessment guidelines and interim merger process guidelines. In conducting its competition assessment, the ACCC has considered the information and documents that were submitted with the notification form, requests for information, information from third partes, and publicly available information. The ACCC has determined that the Acquisition may be put into effect as it considers that the Acquisition would be unlikely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in any market. In reaching its decision, and based on the material before it, the ACCC makes the following findings. • Camp Australia would continue to face competition from multiple alternative suppliers of OSHC services and vacation care services in south-east Queensland. • Some third-party feedback raised concerns that the Acquisition could decrease service quality, reduce diversity of providers (given the removal of Jabiru as a not-for-profit supplier), and increase barriers for smaller suppliers. However, given the presence of remaining alternative suppliers, and taking into account other information, including the role of the Queensland Department of Education in managing arrangements for the supply of OSHC services, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to decrease service quality, diversity of providers or increase barriers for smaller suppliers as a result of a substantial lessening of competition for the supply of OSHC and vacation care services in south-east Queensland.

Applications for review	A notifying party, or other person who has been allowed to do so by the Australian Competition Tribunal, may apply for review if they are dissatisfied with the determination. Pursuant to section 100C of the Act, applications for review of the determination are to be made to the Australian Competition Tribunal before the end of 14 calendar days after this statement of reasons was included on the ACCC's Acquisitions Register. To confirm whether there has been any application for review, please contact the Australian Competition Tribunal.

Determination made by the Commission