

Notification Waiver Determination

Creative Planning – MASECO

Acquisition	Creative Planning Holdco, LLC (Creative Planning), through its wholly owned subsidiary, CP Britannia Bidco Limited, applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed acquisition of 100% of the interests in MASECO LLP (Maseco), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	22 April 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Creative Planning, headquartered in the United States, is a wealth and investment management firm that provides a financial planning led investment management approach, retirement planning, estate planning, trust services, tax planning and family office services for individuals as well as 401(k) and institutional clients. Creative Planning is jointly controlled by Peter Mallouk, TPG Inc. (TPG) and General Atlantic Service Company, L.P. (GA). • Peter Mallouk is the President and CEO of Creative Planning. • TPG is a global alternative asset manager firm founded in San Francisco in 1992. • GA is affiliated with a group of investment funds (the GA Group) that provide capital for growth companies globally. The GA Group, headquartered in the US, provides capital and strategic support for growth companies in six sectors: climate, consumer, financial services, healthcare, life sciences, and technology. The target, Maseco is a UK based provider of wealth management services primarily to high-net worth and ultra-high net worth UK or US citizens living in the UK or the US. Maseco's presence in Australia is small. Both parties provide financial advice and wealth management globally.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act).

	Based on the information currently before it, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular: a. there is a small horizontal overlap between Creative Planning (and its connected entities) and Maseco in the supply of financial advice and wealth management services in Australia b. the parties' combined share in the supply of financial advice and wealth management services in Australia is estimated to be low and the increase in share of supply arising from the Acquisition would be small c. there are alternative suppliers of financial advice and wealth management services in Australia. The ACCC has also had regard to the likelihood that, if the Acquisition were put into effect, the notification thresholds determined under section 51ABP(1) of the Act would apply. While the ACCC considers that the notification thresholds are likely to be met, given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
--	--

Determination made by Commissioner Williams pursuant to a delegation under section 25(1) of the Act