

Notification Waiver Determination

Oceania Capital Partners – Hudson Global Resources (Aust)

Acquisition	Oceania Capital Partners Limited (Oceania Capital Partners) applied for a notification waiver in respect of its and K & K Ryan Pty Ltd's proposed acquisition of 33.15% of the share capital each in Hudson Highland (APAC) Pty Ltd, the holding company of Hudson Global Resources (Aust) Pty Ltd (Hudson Global Resources (Aust)), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	4 May 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	Oceania Capital Partners is a Sydney based unlisted public company that pursues private equity style investments in businesses. This includes interests in home security, aerospace, broadcasting and health, among others. K & K Ryan Pty Ltd as trustee for the K & K Ryan Family Trust is a private investor associated with Hudson Global Resources (Aust)'s Chief Financial Officer, Kendall Ryan. Hudson Global Resources (Aust) is an Australian-owned recruitment and talent management agency, operating since 1985 with offices across all major Australian states and territories. They specialize in permanent, contract, and high-volume recruitment for sectors including government, tech, engineering, and finance, placing roughly 5,600 on-hire staff annually. Oceania Capital Partners and K & K Ryan Pty Ltd do not have any other investments in recruitment and labour hire businesses, or investments in related businesses at different levels in the supply chain for recruitment and labour hire in Australia.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information provided in the application, the ACCC considers the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular, there is no horizontal overlap or vertical relationships between Oceania Capital Partners, K & K Ryan Pty Ltd and Hudson Global Resources (Aust) in the supply of recruitment and labour hire services in Australia.

	The ACCC has also had regard to the likelihood that, if the Acquisition were put into effect, the notification thresholds determined under section 51ABP(1) of the Act would apply. While the ACCC considers that the notification thresholds are likely to be met, given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
