

Notification Waiver Determination

RDO Australia – freehold land and buildings of three commercial truck dealership sites in West Wodonga VIC

Acquisition	RDO Australia Property Holdings No 2 Pty Ltd (RDO Australia) applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed acquisition of 100% of the freehold land interest and buildings of three commercial truck dealership sites located in West Wodonga, Victoria (the Target Premises), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	6 June 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, RDO Australia, owns and leases three commercial truck dealership sites in Wagga Wagga, Dubbo and Orange (NSW). The Target Premises are currently owned by CD & JB Investments Pty Ltd (the Vendor). The Target Premises are currently leased by the Vendor to Inland Truck Centres Pty Ltd, a commercial truck dealership business and wholly owned subsidiary of RDO Australia. In 2025, Inland Truck Centres Pty Ltd acquired 100% of the business assets (excluding land) of the commercial truck dealership which operated from the Target Premises, which was a wholly owned subsidiary of the Vendor. After the Acquisition, RDO Australia will own the Target Premises and Inland Truck Centres Pty Ltd will continue to operate its commercial truck dealership business from the Target Premises.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application, and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information currently before it, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular: a. there is no horizontal overlap between the parties (and their connected entities) in the supply of commercial leasing services or commercial trucks in Wodonga or the surrounding areas

	b. RDO Australia, via its subsidiary Inland Trucks, is currently leasing the land and intends to continue using the land for the same purposes, but as an owner c. there are alternative truck dealerships in Wodonga and the surrounding areas. In these circumstances, the ACCC does not consider it necessary to reach a concluded view on the likelihood of the notification thresholds being met. Given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC’s approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC’s interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
