Phase 1 Determination

Acquisition may be put into effect

25 August 2026

1. Determination

Notified acquisition	HiTech Group Australia Limited (HiTech) proposes to acquire certain Australian assets of Hudson Global Resources (Aust) Pty Limited (Administrators Appointed) (Hudson) by way of an asset sale (the Acquisition)
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABZE(1) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition may be put into effect.
Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Hitech, is a listed Australian public company headquartered in Sydney and is principally engaged in the supply of contract and permanent recruitment services, predominantly to the information and communication technology (ICT) sector, to government and corporate clients across Australia. The target, Hudson, is a recruitment and talent management agency with offices across major Australian states and territories. Hudson supplies contract and permanent recruitment services and other talent solutions to government and corporate clients across Australia and New Zealand, in a range of areas including financial services, resources, retail, insurance, technology and other professional services. Hudson entered voluntary administration in April 2026, with Glenn Ian Livingstone appointed as joint and several administrator.
Overlap and relationship between the parties	The parties overlap in technology/ICT contract and permanent recruitment for government and corporate clients.
Reasons for determination	When making a determination in Phase 1, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) undertakes a competition assessment and considers whether it is appropriate for an acquisition to be approved or subject to further assessment in Phase 2 in accordance with section 51ABZJ of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). In doing so, the ACCC must have regard to the object of the Act and all relevant matters, including the interests of consumers. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notified acquisitions, see the ACCC's merger assessment guidelines and interim merger process guidelines. In conducting its competition assessment, the ACCC has considered the information and documents that were submitted with the notification form, additional information provided by the parties, and information from third parties. The ACCC has determined that the Acquisition may be put into effect as it considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in any market. In reaching its decision, and based on the material before it, the ACCC makes the following findings: ▪ The market share aggregation resulting from the Acquisition is estimated to be low. ▪ The merged firm would continue to face competition from multiple alternate suppliers of technology/ICT contract and permanent recruitment to government and corporate clients.

Applications for review	A notifying party, or other person who has been allowed to do so by the Australian Competition Tribunal, may apply for review if they are dissatisfied with the determination. Pursuant to section 100C of the Act, applications for review of the determination are to be made to the Australian Competition Tribunal before the end of 14 calendar days after this statement of reasons was included on the ACCC's Acquisitions Register. To confirm whether there has been any application for review, please contact the Australian Competition Tribunal.

Determination made by Commissioner Williams pursuant to a delegation under section 25(1) of the Act
