

Questionnaire: IAG - RAC Insurance

MN-65005

Deadline to respond: 5:00pm AEST on 22 July 2026

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) is currently assessing Insurance Australia Group (IAG)'s proposed acquisition of 100% of the share capital in RAC Insurance (RACI) from RACI Pty Ltd, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Royal Automobile Club of Western Australia Inc (RAC) (the Acquisition).

Upon completion of the Acquisition, it is proposed that RACWA Holdings Pty Ltd (RACWAH), a wholly owned subsidiary of RAC, and RACI (which would be owned by IAG), will enter into an exclusive 20-year distribution alliance and brand licensing agreement, under which RACWAH would continue as distributor of the general insurance products issued by RACI (owned by IAG) to RAC members in Western Australia under the RAC brand (Distribution Agreement).

For further information about the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, see the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

On 1 July 2026, IAG made a remedy offer to the ACCC that they would provide a court-enforceable undertaking pursuant to s87B of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (the Act), which would include behavioural commitments in relation to competitiveness and benchmarking provisions in the Distribution Agreement and in relation to the acquisition of smash repair services (the remedy offer).

The ACCC is assessing IAG's remedy offer and is seeking information and views from stakeholders on the offer. A copy of IAG's remedy offer is available at the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The ACCC invites you to provide submissions or information in response to the questions below by 5:00pm AEST on 22 July 2026 via email to mergers@acc.gov.au with a copy to mergersru@acc.gov.au, with the title Submission re: IAG - RACI - Remedy offer. The ACCC must complete its assessment within strict statutory timelines which also impacts the time available for consultation.

If you would prefer to speak to a member of the ACCC case team, please email mergers@acc.gov.au with a copy to mergersru@acc.gov.au, with the title Request for call re: IAG - RACI - Remedy offer. Someone from the case team will contact you to find a suitable time for a call.

Please note that:

- This request is made in accordance with section 51ABZZD(2)(a) and (c) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). This means that while the ACCC may take into account submissions or information received after the due date, it is not required to do so.

- In responding to the questions below or when providing a submission, please highlight and/or mark any confidential information and indicate why the information is confidential (as brief reasons in footnotes in your response or submission, or in a separate document such as the ACCC's confidentiality claims template). The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are outlined at the end of this document.

Questions about the remedy offer

If you have not previously provided a submission to the ACCC on this matter, please:

1. Provide a brief description of your business or organisation (if applicable), including any relationship you or your business/organisation have with IAG, RACI, or RAC.

2. Outline any concerns you have regarding the impact of the Acquisition on competition.

The remedy offer

3. Describe the extent to which IAG's remedy offer would address any concerns you have in relation to the Acquisition, including with respect to the:

- Distribution Agreement commitments,
- smash repair services commitment,
- repair service facilities commitment, and
- supporting commitments.

4. Provide any views you have on whether a period of 5 years is an appropriate duration for IAG's remedy offer.

5. Provide any additional information or comments you consider relevant to the ACCC's consideration of the remedy offer.

--

Confidentiality of responses

During the ACCC's assessment of a notified acquisition, the ACCC may receive information that is properly regarded as being confidential, and which is provided to the ACCC in confidence. The ACCC is committed to treating this information responsibly and in accordance with the law. The ACCC understands the importance of confidentiality to parties involved in a notified acquisition, as well as to third parties that provide information to the ACCC.

The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of the confidential information consistent with the ACCC's statutory functions
- confidential information may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the information as confidential, and
- the ACCC may disclose the confidential information to other third parties if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the Act. This includes disclosures made in the performance of official duties or functions, which include transparency requirements which are part of the merger control regime.

For further information on confidentiality, see the ACCC's interim merger process guidelines.