| Determination                                | The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABZE(1) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition may be put into effect.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Parties to the Acquisition                   | The acquirer, Tibaldi, supplies ham products, bacon, salami, deli meats, sausages, and fresh pork. Tibaldi supplies its products to supermarket and catering/fast-food customers under various brands including Tibaldi, Signature Collection and Coburg Smokehouse. The target, SFG, supplies prosciutto, pancetta, chorizo, bresaola, salami, sausages, and related products to both retail and food service customers under the Casalingo Smallgoods, Chicaron, Fiora Smallgoods, crackle &amp; co, and Greenvale Farm Free Range brands. SFG also manufactures products on behalf of other smallgoods suppliers via toll manufacturing arrangements, including Tibaldi, D’Orsogna Smallgoods, and Spiess Food Solutions.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Overlap and relationship between the parties | The parties overlap in the manufacture and wholesale supply of smallgoods in Australia. The parties also have two vertical relationships: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. SFG manufactures smallgoods for Tibaldi through a contract manufacturing arrangement, and</li> <li>2. Tibaldi supplies raw materials used in the manufacture of smallgoods to SFG.</li> </ol>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Reasons for determination                    | When making a determination in Phase 1, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) undertakes a competition assessment and considers whether it is appropriate for an acquisition to be approved or subject to further assessment in Phase 2 in accordance with section 51ABZJ of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). In doing so, the ACCC must have regard to the object of the Act and all relevant matters, including the interests of consumers. For more information about the ACCC’s approach to considering notified acquisitions, see the ACCC’s merger assessment guidelines and interim merger process guidelines. In conducting its competition assessment, the ACCC has considered the information and documents that were submitted with the notification form and information from third parties. The ACCC has determined that the Acquisition may be put into effect as it considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in any market. In reaching its decision, and based on the material before it, the ACCC makes the following findings. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The market share aggregation resulting from the Acquisition in the supply of smallgoods manufacturing and wholesale distribution is estimated to be low.</li> </ul> |
