|  | a. Wipro is not acquiring Mindsprint's interest in Mindsprint Australia and, beyond the joint venture, Mindsprint has a small presence in Australia b. there are alternative providers of information technology, business and consulting services in Australia, and the combined share in the supply of these services is estimated to be low. The ACCC has also had regard to the likelihood that, if the Acquisition were put into effect, the notification thresholds determined under section 51ABP(1) of the Act would apply. While the ACCC considers that the notification thresholds are likely to be met, given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines. |
