

Notification Waiver Determination

Allianz – Lease of commercial office space in North Sydney from Lendlease (Victoria Cross)

Acquisition	Allianz Australia Services Pty Limited (Allianz Australia Services) applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed arrangements with Lendlease (Victoria Cross) Pty Limited as trustee for Lendlease Victoria Cross Trust (Lendlease (Victoria Cross)) and Victoria Cross Commercial Pty Ltd as trustee for Victoria Cross Commercial Trust (Victoria Cross Commercial) for the lease of commercial office space on levels 16 and 17 of the new Victoria Cross Tower development located at 155 Miller Street, North Sydney NSW, as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	28 April 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Allianz Australia Services is a wholly owned subsidiary of Allianz Australia Insurance Limited (Allianz). Allianz offers a range of insurance products and services for individuals and business, including car, home, landlord, travel, life, boat and workers' compensation insurance. Allianz intends to use the Premises as commercial office space from which to conduct its insurance business. The vendor, Lendlease (Victoria Cross), is the developer of the new Victoria Cross Tower development in North Sydney. Victoria Cross Commercial is the proposed lessor of the premises. Both Lendlease (Victoria Cross) and Victoria Cross Commercial are wholly owned subsidiaries of Lendlease Corporation Limited (Lendlease). Lendlease is an Australian real estate and investment business, which uses an integrated model of investments, development and construction to create and manage mixed-use precincts and civic and social infrastructure.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act).

Notification waiver determination | Allianz – Lease of commercial office space in North Sydney from Lendlease (Victoria Cross) (WA-55015)

	Based on the information currently before it, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular: a. there is no horizontal competitive overlap between the parties b. there are alternative sites available for Allianz’s competitors, and the Acquisition is not likely to otherwise limit or prevent competition from rivals. The ACCC has also had regard to the likelihood that, if the Acquisition were put into effect, the notification thresholds determined under section 51ABP(1) of the Act would apply. While the ACCC considers that the notification thresholds are likely to be met, given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC’s approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC’s interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
--	---

Determination made by Commissioner Williams pursuant to a delegation under section 25(1) of the Act