| Explanation for determination | In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application, and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information currently before it, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Centuria’s existing share of commercial real estate investment management services in and around the Sydney CBD by floor space is estimated to be low and the increment arising from the Acquisition would be small</li> <li>b. there are alternative providers of commercial real estate investment management services with interests in commercial properties and office buildings in and around the Sydney CBD.</li> </ul> In these circumstances, the ACCC does not consider it necessary to reach a concluded view on the likelihood of the notification thresholds being met. Given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC’s approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC’s interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines. |
