Notification Waiver Determination

Platinum Equity – SuperStroke

Acquisition	Platinum Equity LLC (Platinum Equity), through a vehicle ultimately controlled by Platinum Equity, proposes to acquire 100% of the outstanding equity in SuperStroke International, LLC (SuperStroke), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	28 October 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	Platinum Equity is a US-headquartered global private equity and investment strategies firm, that specialises in the merger, acquisition and operation of companies providing services and solutions to customers in a broad range of sectors including business services, information technology, telecommunication, logistics, metal services, manufacturing and distribution. The target, SuperStroke, is a US-based manufacturer and supplier of golfing equipment components, with a focus on grips used for clubs and putters. SuperStroke supplies aftermarket replacement grips to consumers through distributors and online platforms and also supplies grips to golf equipment manufacturers. Existing unitholders in SuperStroke, including funds advised by or managed by DAOL Private Equity Limited (DAOL Private Equity), will retain a roll-over interest in SuperStroke post-Acquisition. DAOL Private Equity is a Seoul-based investment firm. Funds managed and advised by DAOL Private Equity control Technique Golf Holdings Co., Ltd, a special purpose vehicle that owns SuperStroke.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information provided in the application, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition given there is no horizontal overlap or vertical relationship between Platinum Equity (and its connected entities) and SuperStroke in the supply of golfing equipment in Australia. In these circumstances, the ACCC does not consider it necessary to reach a concluded view on the likelihood of the notification thresholds being met.

	Given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
