

Notification Waiver Determination

Adyen - Talon.One

Acquisition	Adyen N.V. (Adyen) applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed acquisition of 100% of the share capital in Talon.One GmbH (Talon. One), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	25 May 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Adyen is a financial technology company headquartered in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. Adyen is active in the supply of a global payments platform that enables businesses to accept and process payments across online, mobile, and instore channels, and offers related products and services. The target, Talon.One is a software company headquartered in Berlin, Germany. Talon.One is active in the supply of a promotion, loyalty and incentive management platform through a 'software as a service' (SaaS) model. Following completion, Adyen and Talon.One intend to develop functionality that would allow loyalty features to be integrated more closely into the payment processing flow.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information provided in the application the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular: a. there is no horizontal overlap between Adyen and Talon.One in the supply of promotion, loyalty and/or incentive management platform services b. there is a low risk of foreclosure or other concerning vertical or conglomerate effects resulting from exclusionary conduct, bundling or tying of products and services post-acquisition c. there are alternative suppliers of payments platforms and promotion, loyalty and incentive management platforms in Australia.

	The ACCC has also had regard to the likelihood that, if the Acquisition were put into effect, the notification thresholds determined under section 51ABP(1) of the Act would apply. While the ACCC considers that the notification thresholds are likely to be met, given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
--	--

Determination made by Commissioner Williams pursuant to a delegation under section 25(1) of the Act