

Questionnaire: Total Drain Group - Pipe Management Australia

MN-15028

Deadline to respond: 22 July 2026

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) is currently assessing Total Drain Group Pty Ltd's, trading as TDG Environmental (TDG), proposed acquisition of 100% of the shares of Utility Management Group Pty Ltd, trading as Pipe Management Australia (PMA) (the Acquisition).

For further information about the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, see the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The ACCC is assessing the impact of the Acquisition on competition and is seeking your views. The ACCC invites you to provide submissions or information in response to the questions below by 22 July 2026 via email to mergers@accc.gov.au with the title Submission re: Total Drain Group - Pipe Management Australia. The ACCC must complete its assessment within strict statutory timelines which also impacts the time available for consultation.

If you would prefer to speak to a member of the ACCC case team, please email mergers@accc.gov.au with the title Request for call re: Total Drain Group - Pipe Management Australia. Someone from the case team will contact you to find a suitable time for a call.

Please note that:

- This request is made in accordance with section 51ABZZD(2)(a) and (c) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). This means that while the ACCC may take into account submissions or information received after the due date, it is not required to do so.
- In responding to the questions below or when providing a submission, please highlight and/or mark any confidential information and indicate why the information is confidential (as brief reasons in footnotes in your response or submission, or in a separate document such as the ACCC's general confidentiality claims template). The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are outlined at the end of this document.

Questions

In this questionnaire, liquid waste collection and maintenance services (C&M services) includes a range of services relating to the inspection, cleaning, maintenance and rehabilitation of stormwater drainage infrastructure, including drains, pits, culverts, pipes and gross pollutant traps (GPT).

Services include jetting/vacuuming, GPT servicing, non-destructive digging (NDD), pipe remediation, relining, CCTV inspection, and waste transport and disposal.

1. Provide a brief description of your business or organisation, including any commercial relationships with TDG and/or PMA.

Questions for customers

2. For each of the C&M services your organisation procures in Australia, please provide details of your current provider(s), the services they provide, and an overview of your procurement processes.

3. How closely do TDG and PMA compete for the supply of C&M services (for any particular C&M services, customer types or geographic locations)? Where TDG and PMA compete closely, identify alternative suppliers capable of supplying the relevant services (noting any differences in price, service, technical expertise or geographic presence).

4. Do you have any competition concerns about the removal of PMA as a competitor in relation to the supply of C&M services, including any specific type of service?

Questions for competitors

5. Identify and describe the types of C&M services you supply and in which geographic areas you supply these, including whether you compete for specific types of C&M services or customer types (e.g. large industrial customers, or small/local customers), or customers in a particular industry?

6. Identify who you consider to be your competitors for each of the C&M services you supply.

7. Provide any additional information or comments you consider relevant to the ACCC's consideration of the Acquisition.

Confidentiality of responses

During the ACCC's assessment of a notified acquisition, the ACCC may receive information that is properly regarded as being confidential, and which is provided to the ACCC in confidence. The ACCC is committed to treating this information responsibly and in accordance with the law. The ACCC understands the importance of confidentiality to parties involved in a notified acquisition, as well as to third parties that provide information to the ACCC.

The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of the confidential information consistent with the ACCC's statutory functions
- confidential information may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the information as confidential, and
- the ACCC may disclose the confidential information to other third parties if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the Act. This includes disclosures made in the performance of official duties or functions, which include transparency requirements which are part of the merger control regime.

For further information on confidentiality, see the ACCC's Quick guide on providing confidential information to the ACCC.
