

Notification Waiver Determination

Turner Family Entities - Pedal Group

Acquisition	Gainsdale Pty Ltd applied for a notification waiver in respect of: - the proposed acquisition by Gainsdale Pty Ltd, Hootie Blowfish Pty Ltd, and Counting Crows Pty Ltd (together, the Turner Family Entities) of an additional 20.32% of the shares (in aggregate) in Pedal Group Pty Ltd (Pedal Group) from Flight Centre Travel Group Limited (Flight Centre) - Pedal Group's buy-back of Flight Centre's remaining shares in Pedal Group, representing (in aggregate) 26.68% of the shares in Pedal Group, as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition). Upon completion of the Acquisition, the Turner Family Entities' shareholding in Pedal Group will increase from 36.30% to 77.23%.
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	30 April 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirers, the Turner Family Entities, are entities associated with Mr Matthew Turner and his family. The target, Pedal Group, is a retailer and wholesaler of bicycles, e-bikes, scooters, associated accessories and a provider of bicycle / e-bike maintenance services. In Australia, Pedal Group operates 71 '99 Bikes' branded retail stores and the 'Advance Traders' wholesale business. Pedal Group also supplies bicycle rental services in Queensland.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information currently before it, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular: a. aside from their existing interests in Pedal Group, there are no horizontal overlaps or vertical relationships between the Turner Family Entities (including their connected entities) and Pedal Group (including its connected entities) in the retail and wholesale supply of bicycles, e-bikes, scooters, associated accessories in Australia or in the supply of bike maintenance and rental services b. there are alternative retail and wholesale suppliers of bicycles, e-bikes, scooters and associated accessories in Australia c. there are alternative suppliers of maintenance services and rental services in areas where Pedal Group supplies such services. The ACCC has also had regard to the likelihood that, if the Acquisition were put into effect, the notification thresholds determined under section 51ABP(1) of the Act would apply. While the ACCC considers that the notification thresholds are likely to be met, given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
