

Questionnaire: Transocean - Valaris

MN-25019

Deadline to respond: 23 June 2026

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) is currently assessing Transocean Limited's (Transocean) proposed merger with Valaris Limited (Valaris) (the Acquisition).

For further information about the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, see the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The ACCC is assessing the impact of the Acquisition on competition and is seeking your views. The ACCC invites you to provide submissions or information in response to the questions below by 23 June 2026 via email to mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Submission re: Transocean - Valaris. The ACCC must complete its assessment within strict statutory timelines which also impacts on the time available for consultation.

If you would prefer to speak to a member of the ACCC case team, please email mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Request for call re: Transocean - Valaris. Someone from the case team will contact you to find a suitable time for a call.

Please note that:

- This request is made in accordance with section 51ABZZD(2)(a) and (c) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). This means that while the ACCC may take into account submissions or information received after the due date, it is not required to do so.
- In responding to the questions below or when providing a submission, please highlight and/or mark any confidential information and indicate why the information is confidential (as brief reasons in footnotes in your response or submission, or in a separate document such as the ACCC's confidentiality claims template). The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are outlined at the end of this document.

Questions

1. Provide a brief description of your organisation, and specify what, if any, commercial relationship(s) your business or organisation has with Transocean and/or Valaris.

Questions for customers of offshore contract drilling services

2. Describe the factors you consider when selecting an offshore contract drilling services provider and whether there are any factors unique to the Australian market.

3. Describe how closely Transocean and Valaris compete in the supply of offshore contract drilling services in Australia, including with reference to their rig fleet composition (jackups, semisubmersibles and drillships).

4. Identify any alternative suppliers of offshore contract drilling services that viably meet your organisation's offshore contract drilling requirements. Please describe how closely they compete with Transocean and Valaris, including by reference to factors such as availability, capabilities, price and quality.

5. Provide the following details in relation to each completed request for tender or other bidding process you have conducted since 1 January 2021 in Australia, using the table below.

Project name and description	Requested rig type(s)	Project location , depth and conditions	Project value and duration	Name(s) of tenderer(s) and successful tenderer(s) (with reference to rig type)	Key reasons for selecting successful bid
[add as many rows as needed]

6. Describe whether your organisation can self-supply offshore contract drilling services, and/or sponsor new entry or expansion into the supply of these services in Australia. Please also outline the circumstances under which you would consider such strategies.

Questions for suppliers of offshore contract drilling services

7. Describe the offshore contract drilling services your organisation supplies and in which geographic regions.

8. Provide details of the rigs you own globally which can deliver offshore contract drilling services, using the table below.

Rig type	Number of each rig type owned/operated (please disaggregate operating, warm- and cold-stacked rig numbers)	Locations, customers, project values and durations by rig type	Forward schedule of contracted projects by rig type (up to 2032)
Jackups
Semisubmersibles
Drillships

9. Please list the tenders you have participated in, in the previous 3 years in Australia. Include details such as customer, location, rig type, project duration.

--

10. Describe the height of barriers to entry and/or expansion in the supply of offshore contract drilling services in Australia, including by reference to costs (such as capital expenditure and regulatory requirements), availability of necessary inputs, timing, experience in Australia, and any other factors.

--

Additional questions

11. Provide any additional information or comments that you consider relevant to the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, including any views on the effect of the Acquisition on competition in Australia.

--

Confidentiality of responses

During the ACCC's assessment of a notified acquisition, the ACCC may receive information that is properly regarded as being confidential, and which is provided to the ACCC in confidence. The ACCC is committed to treating this information responsibly and in accordance with the law. The ACCC understands the importance of confidentiality to parties involved in a notified acquisition, as well as to third parties that provide information to the ACCC.

The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of the confidential information consistent with the ACCC's statutory functions
- confidential information may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the information as confidential, and
- the ACCC may disclose the confidential information to other third parties if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the Act. This includes disclosures made in the performance of official duties or functions, which include transparency requirements which are part of the merger control regime.

For further information on confidentiality, see the ACCC's interim merger process guidelines.