Questionnaire: OCTA – Woodside-EDL LNG JV

MN-10044

Deadline to respond: 5 November 2026

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) is currently assessing Mid-West LNG Equipment Pty Ltd's (OCTA) proposed acquisition of the assets of the EDL LNG Fuel to Power Pty Ltd and Woodside Energy (LNG Fuels and Power) Pty Ltd joint venture (WEJV) (the Acquisition). The Acquisition involves OCTA acquiring three contracts for the supply of trucked liquefied natural gas (LNG) to mining sites in Western Australia, LNG inventory and associated plant and equipment. These assets constitute substantially all the assets of the WEJV business.

Relevant to the Acquisition, OCTA, through its subsidiaries Clean Energy Fuels Australia (CEFA) and EVOL LNG, delivers LNG via road tanker to satellite facilities at mines and remote communities across Western Australia.

For further information about the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, see the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The ACCC is assessing the impact of the Acquisition on competition and is seeking your views. The ACCC invites you to provide submissions or information in response to the questions below by 5 November 2026 via email to mergers@accc.gov.au with the title Submission re: OCTA – Woodside-EDL LNG JV. The ACCC must complete its assessment within strict statutory timelines which also impacts the time available for consultation.

If you would prefer to speak to a member of the ACCC case team, please email mergers@accc.gov.au with the title Request for call re: OCTA – Woodside-EDL LNG JV. Someone from the case team will contact you to find a suitable time for a call.

Please note that:

- This request is made in accordance with section 51ABZZD(2)(a) and (c) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). This means that while the ACCC may take into account submissions or information received after the due date, it is not required to do so.
- In responding to the questions below or when providing a submission, please highlight and/or mark any confidential information and indicate why the information is confidential (as brief reasons in footnotes in your response or submission, or in a separate document such as the ACCC's general confidentiality claims template). The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are outlined at the end of this document.

Questions

1. Outline any concerns regarding the impact of the Acquisition on competition, including if OCTA (either directly or through its subsidiaries CEFA and EVOL LNG) and WEJV are close competitors and there are not many alternatives in any particular geographic region.

2. Explain the extent to which alternative hydrocarbons (such as diesel) or renewable energy sources can be used as an alternative to trucked LNG for remote energy generation, including in relation to primary generation or for firming capacity.

3. Describe the ability of remote energy generation customers to switch fuel sources for remote energy generation, either to an alternative hydrocarbon or to renewable energy sources, including any ability to switch during the life of a project.

4. Provide any additional information or comments that you consider relevant to the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition.

5. Provide a brief description of your business or organisation, including any commercial relationships with OCTA and/or WEJV.

Confidentiality of responses

During the ACCC's assessment of a notified acquisition, the ACCC may receive information that is properly regarded as being confidential, and which is provided to the ACCC in confidence. The ACCC is committed to treating this information responsibly and in accordance with the law. The ACCC understands the importance of confidentiality to parties involved in a notified acquisition, as well as to third parties that provide information to the ACCC.

The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of the confidential information consistent with the ACCC's statutory functions

- confidential information may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the information as confidential, and
- the ACCC may disclose the confidential information to other third parties if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the Act. This includes disclosures made in the performance of official duties or functions, which include transparency requirements which are part of the merger control regime.

For further information on confidentiality, see the ACCC's confidentiality quick guide.
