

Questionnaire: Bunnings – Intellihub – Zelora Joint Venture

MN-90029

Deadline to respond: 26 August 2026

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) is currently assessing Bunnings – Intellihub – Zelora Joint Venture

Bunnings Group Pty Ltd (Bunnings) and Intellihub Australia Pty Ltd (Intellihub) are parties to an existing unincorporated joint venture which trades as Zelora. Zelora supplies home renewable energy solutions. Its services include supplying, installing and supporting customised solar panel and battery solutions through either a subscription-based or outright purchase model.

Bunnings is part of the ASX listed Wesfarmers Group and is a retailer of home improvement and lifestyle products in Australia and New Zealand.

Intellihub provides multi-utility services, including electricity and water metering as well as technology, installation and maintenance for other energy management services such as solar, batteries and hot water systems, EV charging and virtual power plants. Intellihub also operates the Enreal business which offers solar, battery and home energy management systems on a subscription or outright basis.

Bunnings and Intellihub have agreed to establish an incorporated joint venture which will operate the existing Zelora business. The transaction will involve:

- a. Bunnings and Intellihub (through related entities) acquiring shares in a newly incorporated entity Zelora TopCo Pty Ltd (which, together with its subsidiaries, is referred to as the Zelora JV); and
- b. the Zelora JV subsequently acquiring the assets used in the existing Zelora business as well as existing assets of Intellihub's Enreal business,

(the Acquisition).

For further information about the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, see the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The ACCC is assessing the impact of the Acquisition on competition and is seeking your views. The ACCC invites you to provide submissions or information in response to the questions below by 26 August 2026 via email to mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Submission re: Bunnings– Intellihub – Zelora Joint Venture. The ACCC must complete its assessment within strict statutory timelines which also impacts the time available for consultation.

If you would prefer to speak to a member of the ACCC case team, please email mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Request for call re: Bunnings– Intellihub –

Zelora Joint Venture. Someone from the case team will contact you to find a suitable time for a call.

Please note that:

- This request is made in accordance with section 51ABZZD(2)(a) and (c) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). This means that while the ACCC may take into account submissions or information received after the due date, it is not required to do so.
- In responding to the questions below or when providing a submission, please highlight and/or mark any confidential information and indicate why the information is confidential (as brief reasons in footnotes in your response or submission, or in a separate document such as the ACCC's general confidentiality claims template). The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are outlined at the end of this document.

Questions for all stakeholders

1. Outline any concerns regarding the impact of the Acquisition on competition.

2. Provide any additional information or comments that you consider relevant to the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition.

3. Provide a brief description of your business or organisation, including any commercial relationships with Bunnings, Intellihub, or Zelora

Confidentiality of responses

During the ACCC's assessment of a notified acquisition, the ACCC may receive information that is properly regarded as being confidential, and which is provided to the ACCC in confidence. The ACCC is committed to treating this information responsibly and in accordance with the law. The ACCC understands the importance of confidentiality to parties involved in a notified acquisition, as well as to third parties that provide information to the ACCC.

The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of the confidential information consistent with the ACCC's statutory functions
- confidential information may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the information as confidential, and
- the ACCC may disclose the confidential information to other third parties if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the Act. This includes disclosures made in the performance of official duties or functions, which include transparency requirements which are part of the merger control regime.

For further information on confidentiality, see the ACCC's Quick guide on providing confidential information to the ACCC.