

Questionnaire: Heidelberg Materials Australia – construction materials business of MAAS

MN-50009

Deadline to respond: 7 July 2026

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) is currently assessing Heidelberg Materials Australia Holdings Pty Ltd's (HMAH) proposed acquisition of 100% of the share capital of Regional Group Australia Pty Limited, Macquarie Geotechnical Pty Limited and Machinery Sales Pty Limited, being wholly owned subsidiaries of Maas Group Holdings Limited (MGH), which together comprise MGH's construction materials business (MAAS) (the Acquisition).

The Acquisition

The ACCC is currently assessing HMAH's proposed acquisition of 100% of the shares in the entities that operate the construction materials business of MGH, which together are referred to as MAAS (the Parties).

The assets to be acquired include hard rock and natural sand quarries, ready-mix concrete (RMX) plants, materials testing and geotechnical services laboratories and machinery sales sites in Queensland, New South Wales (NSW) and Victoria, operating asphalt plants in NSW, the ACT and Queensland, an asphalt plant under construction in Melbourne and a heavy construction and demolition (C&D) waste disposal and recycling plant in Melbourne.

For further information about the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, see the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The acquirer – HMA

HMAH, formerly known as Hanson Holdings Australia Pty Ltd, together with its related entities in Australia (collectively, HMA) supplies a range of construction materials, including RMX, quarry products (including coarse and fine aggregates), asphalt and sustainable / recycled construction materials. HMA also operates waste disposal and recycling facilities. HMA holds interests in the following joint ventures (JV) in Queensland, NSW and Victoria:

- Cement Australia – 50:50 JV with Holcim, which produces and sells cement.
- Western Suburbs Concrete Partnership – 50:50 JV with Total Concrete Solutions Pty Ltd, which primarily supplies concrete in Western Sydney.

- XL Premix Pty Ltd - 51% interest in a JV with XL Concrete (Vic) Pty Ltd (which has a 49% interest), which primarily supplies concrete in Melbourne.
- Metromix Pty Ltd - 50:50 JV with Holcim, which involves aggregate and concrete supply in Sydney.
- Lytton Sands JV - 50:50 JV with Boral for the extraction and processing of natural sand in Brisbane.

HMA's construction materials brands include Hymix, Alex Fraser Group, Elvin Group, Pioneer North Queensland, High Quality Concrete and Midway Concrete.

The target - MAAS

MGH is an ASX-listed diversified industrial group. The MAAS construction materials business operates RMX plants, hard rock and natural sand quarries, an asphalt business, a recycling centre, and also provides materials testing and geotechnical services, and machinery sales and earthmoving services.

MAAS's construction materials brands include Austek Roads, Macquarie Geotech, Regional Group Australia, Cleary Bros, Nationwide Machinery Sales & Hire, PWE Quarry Services, Amcor, Cardinia Environmental Recycling, Aerolite Quarries, Economix, Dandy Premix and Casacir.

HMA's remedy offer

On 29 June 2026, HMA made a further remedy offer to the ACCC (the remedy offer), to address any potential ACCC concerns arising from the Acquisition in:

- the supply of RMX in Blackwater;
- the supply of coarse aggregates in Central Queensland; and
- the supply of RMX in the Illawarra region of New South Wales.

HMA proposes to divest:

- the HMA Blackwater RMX plant;
- the HMA Yalkara hard rock quarry;
- the HMA North Wollongong RMX plant; and
- the HMA Bass Point RMX plant,

(collectively, the proposed divestitures).

The ACCC is assessing the remedy offer and is seeking information and views from stakeholders on the offer. The questions below request views in respect of the remedy offer, and a summary of the offer is available on the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The ACCC invites you to provide submissions or information in response to the questions below by 7 July 2026 via email to mergers@accc.gov.au with a copy to mergersru@accc.gov.au, with the title Submission re: HMA - MAAS - Remedy Offer. The ACCC must complete its assessment within strict statutory timelines which also impacts the time available for consultation.

If you would prefer to speak to a member of the ACCC case team, please email mergers@accc.gov.au with a copy to mergersru@accc.gov.au, with the title

Request for call re: HMA – MAAS – Remedy Offer. Someone from the case team will contact you to find a suitable time for a call.

Please note that:

- This request is made in accordance with section 51ABZZD(2)(a) and (c) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). This means that while the ACCC may take into account submissions or information received after the due date, it is not required to do so.
- In responding to the questions below or when providing a submission, please highlight and/or mark any confidential information and indicate why the information is confidential (as brief reasons in footnotes in your response or submission, or in a separate document such as the ACCC's confidentiality claims template). The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are outlined at the end of this document.

Questions about the remedy offer

1. Describe the extent to which HMA's remedy offer would address any concerns you have in relation to the Acquisition.

2. Provide your views whether the proposed divestitures are likely to attract a suitable purchaser, and the qualities a suitable purchaser should possess.

3. Provide your views on whether Corbet's Group is a suitable purchaser of the HMA Blackwater RMX plant and the HMA Yalkara hard rock quarry.

4. Provide your view on any factors that may impact effective implementation of the remedy offer e.g., any third-party consents (including regulatory) required.

5. Provide any additional information or comments you consider relevant to the ACCC's consideration of the remedy offer.

Confidentiality of responses

During the ACCC's assessment of a notified acquisition, the ACCC may receive information that is properly regarded as being confidential, and which is provided to the ACCC in confidence. The ACCC is committed to treating this information responsibly and in accordance with the law. The ACCC understands the importance of confidentiality to parties involved in a notified acquisition, as well as to third parties that provide information to the ACCC.

The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of the confidential information consistent with the ACCC's statutory functions
- confidential information may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the information as confidential, and
- the ACCC may disclose the confidential information to other third parties if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the Act. This includes disclosures made in the performance of official duties or functions, which include transparency requirements which are part of the merger control regime.

For further information on confidentiality, see the ACCC's interim merger process guidelines.
