

Notification Waiver Determination

Warburg Pincus – Commercial Credit Holdings Limited

Acquisition	Currawong BidCo Pty Ltd, a special purpose vehicle owned and controlled by funds managed by Warburg Pincus LLC (Warburg Pincus), applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed acquisition of 100% of the issued share capital in Commercial Credit Holdings Limited (CCH), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	1 July 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Warburg Pincus, is a private equity firm headquartered in New York, USA. Warburg Pincus has more than US$100 billion in assets under management, and more than 215 companies in its active portfolio, diversified across stages, sectors, and geographies. In Australia, Warburg Pincus' portfolio companies are primarily active in the software, financial services and real estate sectors. The target, CCH, through its subsidiary, Creditor Watch Pty Ltd, operates the CreditorWatch business (CreditorWatch), a commercial credit reporting bureau and end-to-end credit risk management platform serving Australian businesses. CreditorWatch has three core product offerings: (i) Onboard, which provides automated customer onboarding and identity verification; (ii) Manage, which provides commercial credit reports and customer risk monitoring; and (iii) Collect, which provides a portal for prioritising and managing the collection of invoices. Some Warburg Pincus controlled portfolio companies procure credit reporting services in Australia.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information currently before it, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular: there is no horizontal overlap between Warburg Pincus and CCH (including their connected entities) in the supply of credit reporting and ancillary services in Australia

	b. there is a low risk of foreclosure or other concerning vertical effects resulting from exclusionary conduct post-acquisition. The ACCC has also had regard to the likelihood that, if the Acquisition were put into effect, the notification thresholds determined under section 51ABP(1) of the Act would apply. While the ACCC considers that the notification thresholds are likely to be met, given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
