

Notification Waiver Determination

Black Rhino Group – Granville Tavern and Motel and Cambridge Street Bottle Shop & Cellars in Granville, QLD

Acquisition	Black Rhino (Granville) Pty Ltd and the trustee for the It Is What It Is (Granville) Trust, as part of the Black Rhino Group, applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed acquisition of 100% of Granville Hotel Qld Pty Ltd's interest in the Granville Tavern and Motel and the Cambridge Street Bottle Shop & Cellars businesses, together with the relevant freehold land from which the businesses operate, as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	28 May 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The Black Rhino Group is a national hospitality group operating 48 venues across Queensland, Victoria and South Australia. The Black Rhino Group operate licensed venues, including hotels, bottleshops, accommodation, and food and beverage offerings, with a particular focus on gaming, wagering, family bistros, sports bars, retail liquor, entertainment and accommodation. Black Rhino (Granville) Pty Ltd and the trustee for the It Is What It Is (Granville) Trust are part of the Black Rhino Group. The Black Rhino Group has 5 licensed venues and locations in Queensland. The Granville Tavern and Motel is a commercial hotel motel business which offers dining, accommodation and gaming machines. The Cambridge Street Bottle Shop & Cellars is a bottle shop that offers packaged liquor for off-premises consumption. Both businesses are based in Granville, a suburb of Maryborough in Queensland's Fraser Coast Region. The Black Rhino Group's closest venue to the Granville Tavern and Motel and Cambridge Street Bottle Shop & Cellars is approximately 390km away by drive.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information provided in the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular, there is no local overlap between the Black Rhino Group and the Granville Tavern and Motel and the Cambridge Street Bottle Shop & Cellars in the supply of on-premises hospitality products and services (including liquor for on-site consumption, dining and gaming), accommodation, or packaged liquor for offsite consumption, in Granville and surrounding areas. The ACCC has also had regard to the likelihood that, if the Acquisition were put into effect, the notification thresholds determined under section 51ABP(1) of the Act would apply. While the ACCC considers that the notification thresholds are likely to be met, given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
