

Stonepeak – Castrol

MN-60015

Phase 1 Determination

Acquisition may be put into effect

18 June 2026

1. Determination and statement of reasons

Notified acquisition	The Acquisition comprises: - the acquisition of 100% of the shares in Castrol Group Holdings Limited (Castrol) by Stonepeak Partners LP (together with its affiliates, Stonepeak) from BP p.l.c. (BP), through Motion JVCo Limited (Motion JVCo), a special purpose vehicle wholly owned by a company which is indirectly owned by investment funds advised and/or managed by Stonepeak, - the reinvestment by BP, Castrol's current owner, in Castrol at closing by acquiring 35% of the shares in Motion JVCo, through a wholly owned subsidiary. Stonepeak will hold the remaining 65% of Motion JVCo, and - the indirect investment by Canada Pension Plan Investment Board (CPPIB) in Motion JVCo, through its wholly owned subsidiary CPP Investment Board Private Holdings (6) Inc, which is expected to occur through an investment in another Stonepeak entity.
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABZE(1) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition may be put into effect.
Parties to the Acquisition	Castrol is BP's global lubricants business, headquartered in the United Kingdom. Castrol is active globally in the development, production and sale of lubricants and related fluids for various industries including automotive, energy, industrial and marine. BP is a global integrated energy group with operations in Europe, North and South America, Australasia, Asia and Africa. Stonepeak is a global investment firm specialising in infrastructure and real estate assets. CPPIB is a professional investment management organisation that manages the Canada Pension Plan Fund (CPP Fund) in the best interest of more than 22 million contributors and beneficiaries.
Overlap and relationship between the parties	There is no horizontal overlap in Australia between Castrol's activities and the activities of either Stonepeak and its connected entities, or CPPIB and its connected entities. Neither Stonepeak (or its connected entities) or CPPIB (or its connected entities) are material suppliers to or customers of Castrol in Australia.
Reasons for determination	When making a determination in Phase 1, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) undertakes a competition assessment and considers whether it is appropriate for an acquisition to be approved or subject to further assessment in Phase 2 in accordance with section 51ABZJ of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). In doing so, the ACCC must have regard to the object of the Act and all relevant matters, including the interests of consumers. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notified acquisitions, see the ACCC's merger assessment guidelines and interim merger process guidelines. In conducting its competition assessment, the ACCC has considered the information and documents that were submitted with the notification form and publicly available information. The ACCC has determined that the Acquisition may be put into effect as it considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in any market. In reaching its decision, and based on the material before it, the ACCC makes the following findings. • There are no horizontal overlaps between Castrol and either of Stonepeak or CPPIB (or their connected entities). • Based on the information before us, there do not appear to be material customer or supplier relationships between Castrol and either of Stonepeak or CPPIB (or their connected entities), that are likely to give rise to vertical or conglomerate competition concerns in Australia.

Applications for review	A notifying party, or other person who has been allowed to do so by the Australian Competition Tribunal, may apply for review if they are dissatisfied with the determination. Pursuant to section 100C of the Act, applications for review of the determination are to be made to the Australian Competition Tribunal before the end of 14 calendar days after this statement of reasons was included on the ACCC's Acquisitions Register. To confirm whether there has been any application for review, please contact the Australian Competition Tribunal.

Determination made by Commissioner Williams pursuant to a delegation under section 25(1) of the Act