

Questionnaire: Quanta- PSD

MN-70012

Deadline to respond: 19 May 2026

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) is currently assessing the proposed acquisition by Quanta Services Australia Pty Ltd (Quanta) of PSD Global Holdings Pty Ltd, including ownership of its wholly owned subsidiaries, PSD Energy Pty Ltd and PSD Plant & Equipment Pty Ltd, and all assets constituting the business trading as PSD Energy (together, PSD) (the Acquisition).

For further information about the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, see the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The ACCC is assessing the impact of the Acquisition on competition and is seeking your views. The ACCC invites you to provide submissions or information in response to the questions below by 19 May 2026 via email to mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Submission re: Quanta - PSD. The ACCC must complete its assessment within strict statutory timelines which also impacts the time available for consultation.

If you would prefer to speak to a member of the ACCC case team, please email mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Request for call re: Quanta - PSD. Someone from the case team will contact you to find a suitable time for a call.

Please note that:

- This request is made in accordance with section 51ABZZD(2)(a) and (c) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). This means that while the ACCC may take into account submissions or information received after the due date, it is not required to do so.
- In responding to the questions below or when providing a submission, please highlight and/or mark any confidential information and indicate why the information is confidential (as brief reasons in footnotes in your response or submission, or in a separate document such as the ACCC's confidentiality claims template). The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are outlined at the end of this document.

Questions

1. Outline any concerns regarding the impact of the Acquisition on competition, including if Quanta and its companies in Australia, Consolidated Power Projects Australia Pty Ltd (CPP) and Intellect Systems Pty Ltd (IS), are close competitors with PSD and if there are not many alternatives.

Procurement of design and construction services for high voltage electrical infrastructure projects

2. Identify any projects for which you have procured high voltage electrical infrastructure design and construction (HV D&C) services in the last three years. For each project, outline the scope of the project, project value, the parties that tendered, and the successful party.

Suppliers of HV D&C services

3. Identify the suppliers you consider when procuring HV D&C services (for customers) or that you compete against when supplying HV D&C services (for competitors). Briefly describe the offerings and competitive strengths and weaknesses of each supplier.

4. Describe any differences in the requirements for HV D&C services for smaller scale, lower value projects and large-scale higher value projects. Explain whether the size of a project affects whether certain suppliers are suitable for the project.

Suppliers of electrical protection panels and/or switchrooms

5. Identify the suppliers that you consider when procuring electrical protection panels and/or switchrooms (for customers) or that you compete against when supplying electrical protection panels and/or switchrooms (for competitors). Briefly describe the offerings and competitive strengths and weaknesses of each supplier.

6. Outline the costs and challenges that suppliers of panels and switchrooms located outside of Western Australia may face when supplying panels and switchrooms to customers in Western Australia.

Other

7. Provide any additional information or comments that you consider relevant to the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition.

8. Provide a brief description of your business or organisation, including the geographic areas that you operate in and any commercial relationships with Quanta, including CPP and IS, and/or PSD.

Confidentiality of responses

During the ACCC's assessment of a notified acquisition, the ACCC may receive information that is properly regarded as being confidential, and which is provided to the ACCC in confidence. The ACCC is committed to treating this information responsibly and in accordance with the law. The ACCC understands the importance of confidentiality to parties involved in a notified acquisition, as well as to third parties that provide information to the ACCC.

The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of the confidential information consistent with the ACCC's statutory functions
- confidential information may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the information as confidential, and
- the ACCC may disclose the confidential information to other third parties if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the Act. This includes disclosures made in the performance of official duties or functions, which include transparency requirements which are part of the merger control regime.

For further information on confidentiality, see the ACCC's interim merger process guidelines.
