Notification Waiver Determination

Brookfield Corporation – Reliance Worldwide Corporation

Acquisition	Aurora Aus Bidco Pty Ltd (Bidco) and Brookfield Corporation (together with funds managed and/or advised by Brookfield Corporation and/or its affiliates, Brookfield) applied for a notification waiver in respect of Brookfield's proposed acquisition of 100% of the issued shares in Reliance Worldwide Corporation Limited (RWC), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	16 October 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Bidco, is a special purpose vehicle established by Brookfield for the purpose of the Acquisition. Brookfield is a global investment firm that deploys capital globally for investors across its core businesses, including its asset management business and its operating businesses. Brookfield is a public company, co-listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) and the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX). The target, RWC, is an Australian publicly listed company (ASX: RWC) which designs, manufactures and supplies plumbing and heating products and solutions for residential and commercial projects. Established in Brisbane, RWC supplies its products globally and specialises in valves, fittings, connectors and water management technologies. RWC's portfolio includes several brands, such as SharkBite, John Guest, Holman, TubeFit and others.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information provided in the application, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition given: a. there is no horizontal overlap between Brookfield (and its connected entities) and RWC in the supply of plumbing and heating products and solutions for residential and commercial projects in Australia

	b. there is a low risk of foreclosure or other concerning vertical effects resulting from exclusionary conduct post-acquisition. In these circumstances, the ACCC does not consider it necessary to reach a concluded view on the likelihood of the notification thresholds being met. Given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.

Determination made by Commissioner Williams pursuant to a delegation under section 25(1) of the Act