AUSTRALIAN COMPETITION & CONSUMER COMMISSION

AUB – One Underwriting

MN-55042

Phase 1 Determination

Acquisition may be put into effect

13 November 2026

1. Determination and statement of reasons

Notified acquisition	Austagencies Pty Ltd, a wholly owned subsidiary of AUB Group Limited (AUB), proposes to acquire 100% of the shares in One Underwriting Pty Ltd (One Underwriting) from Aon Holdings Australia Pty Ltd (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABZE(1) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition may be put into effect.
Parties to the Acquisition	AUB is an ASX200 global insurance intermediary group with a portfolio spanning underwriting agencies, general and specialist retail brokers, authorised representative and broking networks, wholesale brokers, insurance technology platforms, and specialist claims and loss adjustment services. One Underwriting is an indirectly wholly owned subsidiary of Aon Corporation Australia Limited and is an Australian insurance underwriting agency that designs, distributes and manages commercial insurance products under delegated authority for multiple insurers. One Underwriting distributes insurance solutions to retail brokers nationally, with products placed across domestic and international insurance markets across a range of commercial lines.
Overlap and relationship between the Parties	The Parties overlap in the supply of commercial insurance underwriting agency services and the distribution of commercial insurance products in Australia. The Parties also have a potential non-horizontal relationship arising through AUB's operation of downstream broker businesses which often source insurance products from both AUB and non-AUB underwriting agencies.
Reasons for determination	When making a determination in Phase 1, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) undertakes a competition assessment and considers whether it is appropriate for an acquisition to be approved or subject to further assessment in Phase 2 in accordance with section 51ABZJ of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). In doing so, the ACCC must have regard to the object of the Act and all relevant matters, including the interests of consumers. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notified acquisitions, see the ACCC's merger assessment guidelines and interim merger process guidelines. In conducting its competition assessment, the ACCC has considered the information and documents that were submitted with the notification form, information from third parties, and publicly available information. The ACCC has determined that the Acquisition may be put into effect as it considers that the Acquisition would be unlikely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in any market. In reaching its decision, and based on the material before it, the ACCC makes the following findings.

	• The market share aggregation resulting from the Acquisition is estimated to be low. • The merged firm would continue to face competition from several alternative suppliers of commercial insurance underwriting agency services and commercial insurance products in Australia. • The merged firm would be unlikely to have the ability and incentive to foreclose rival brokers' access to commercial insurance products given the presence of alternative suppliers of commercial insurance products in Australia, including other underwriting agencies, and insurers that distribute their products directly to brokers.
Applications for review	A notifying party, or other person who has been allowed to do so by the Australian Competition Tribunal, may apply for review if they are dissatisfied with the determination. Pursuant to section 100C of the Act, applications for review of the determination are to be made to the Australian Competition Tribunal before the end of 14 calendar days after this statement of reasons was included on the ACCC's Acquisitions Register. To confirm whether there has been any application for review, please contact the Australian Competition Tribunal.

Determination made by Commissioner Woodward pursuant to a delegation under section 25(1) of the Act