

Notification Waiver Determination

Australian Venue Co – assets of the Stock Exchange Hotel, Brisbane CBD, QLD

Acquisition	AVC Operations Pty Limited, a subsidiary of Australian Venue Co. Holdings Limited (Australian Venue Co), applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed acquisition of substantially all of the assets of the licensed hotel business trading as the Stock Exchange Hotel (Stock Exchange Hotel) (including the exclusive right to carry on the business in succession of the vendor) from Stock Ex Brisbane Pty Ltd as trustee for the Stock Ex Brisbane Unit Trust, as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	2 October 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	Australian Venue Co operates over 200 licensed venues throughout Australia and New Zealand, primarily pubs, as well as bars, clubs and licensed restaurants. Its venues are individually branded and are mostly located in inner-city and metropolitan areas, offering a range of products and services including food, alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, function rooms, live entertainment and gaming facilities. The Stock Exchange Hotel is a licensed hotel venue located at 166 Charlotte Street, Brisbane City, QLD 4000. The venue is a typical Australian pub/hotel with a public bar, rooftop, bistro, restaurant, and function spaces.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information currently before it, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition given: - the increase in Australian Venue Co's share of supply of dining, function and on-premises liquor services at pub-style venues in the local area surrounding the Stock Exchange Hotel arising from the Acquisition is estimated to be small - there are alternative pub-style venues which supply dining, function and on-premises liquor services in the local area surrounding the Stock Exchange Hotel.

	In these circumstances, the ACCC does not consider it necessary to reach a concluded view on the likelihood of the notification thresholds being met. Given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
