

Notification Waiver Determination

DP World Global Forwarding – Pure Global Logistics

Acquisition	DPW Global Forwarding Pty Ltd (DP World Global Forwarding) applied for a notification waiver in respect of its proposed acquisition of 100% of the share capital in Pac Ware Pty Ltd (Pure Global Logistics), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition).
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	11 May 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, DP World Global Forwarding, provides contract logistics and freight forwarding services in Australia, which includes warehousing, fulfilment and e-commerce support. DPW Global Forwarding's services encompass freight forwarding by ocean, air, road and rail transportation across Australia, including associated warehousing and logistics support. DPW Global Forwarding is a 100% owned subsidiary of DP World Logistics Oceania (Holding) Pty Ltd, which is ultimately controlled by DP World Limited, a United Arab Emirates entity. DP World Australia Limited is a connected entity of DP World Global Forwarding and operates container terminals and provides container stevedoring services at each of the Ports of Melbourne, Botany (Sydney), Brisbane and Fremantle. The target, Pure Global Logistics, is an Australian freight forwarding business specialising in air and sea transportation and customs clearance, primarily for fashion and discount retailers in Australia. DP World Global Forwarding and Pure Global Logistics are each active in the supply of supply international freight forwarding services to customers in Australia.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information provided in the application, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition. In particular: a. there is a small combined share between DP World Global Forwarding and Pure Global Logistics in the supply of freight forwarding services in Australia

	b. there are alternative suppliers of freight forwarding services to customers in Australia c. there is a low risk of foreclosure or other concerning vertical or conglomerate effects resulting from exclusionary conduct, bundling or tying of services in the logistics supply chain in Australia post-acquisition. The ACCC has also had regard to the likelihood that, if the Acquisition were put into effect, the notification thresholds determined under section 51ABP(1) of the Act would apply. While the ACCC considers that the notification thresholds are likely to be met, given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's interim guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
