

Notification Waiver Determination

Verlinvest – up to 60% interest in HomeExchange

Acquisition	Newco, an entity to be established by Verlinvest SA (Verlinvest), proposes to acquire up to approximately 60% of the shares of Tukazza ! SAS (Tukazza), as described in the transaction documents provided as part of the application (the Acquisition). Newco and Verlinvest applied for a notification waiver in respect of the Acquisition.
Determination	The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has determined under section 51ABV(1)(a) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) that the Acquisition is not required to be notified.
Date of determination	28 August 2026

Parties to the Acquisition	The acquirer, Newco, is a société par actions simplifiée to be established by Verlinvest for the purposes of the Acquisition. Verlinvest is an international evergreen investment company headquartered in Brussels, Belgium. Verlinvest focuses on investing in high-growth brands within the food, beverage and fast-moving consumer goods, health, consumer technology and lifestyle sectors. The firm has over EUR 2 billion in assets under management and operates offices in Brussels, New York, London, Mumbai, and Singapore. The target, Tukazza, is the holding company of the HomeExchange group (HomeExchange). HomeExchange is a global private accommodation online travel agency that offers online intermediation services that allow members to exchange homes for holidays and travel.
Explanation for determination	In making this notification waiver determination, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has considered the information provided with the notification waiver application and had regard to the factors in section 51ABV(2)(b) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). Based on the information provided in the application, the ACCC considers that the Acquisition is unlikely to give rise to any material lessening of competition given there is no horizontal or vertical overlap between Verlinvest (including its connected entities) and HomeExchange in the supply of online intermediary services for private accommodation in Australia. In these circumstances, the ACCC does not consider it necessary to reach a concluded view on the likelihood of the notification thresholds being met.

Notification waiver determination | Verlinvest – up to 60% interest in HomeExchange (WA-60033)

	Given that material competition concerns are unlikely to arise, the ACCC has determined that the Acquisition is not required to be notified. The ACCC considers that the determination is consistent with the object of the Act and the interests of consumers in promoting competition. For more information about the ACCC's approach to considering notification waiver applications and to assessing competition effects more generally, see the ACCC's guidance on notification waivers and merger assessment guidelines.
