

Questionnaire: Publicis Groupe - LiveRamp

MN-60026

Deadline to respond: Tuesday 4 August 2026

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) is currently assessing Publicis Groupe S.A. (Publicis)' proposed acquisition of 100% of the shares in LiveRamp Holdings Inc. (LiveRamp) (the Acquisition).

For further information about the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, see the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The ACCC is assessing the impact of the Acquisition on competition and is seeking your views. The ACCC invites you to provide submissions or information in response to the questions below by Tuesday 4 August 2026 via email to mergers@accc.gov.au with the title Submission re: Publicis Groupe - LiveRamp. The ACCC must complete its assessment within strict statutory timelines which also impacts the time available for consultation.

If you would prefer to speak to a member of the ACCC case team, please email mergers@accc.gov.au with the title Request for call re: Publicis Groupe - LiveRamp. Someone from the case team will contact you to find a suitable time for a call.

Please note that:

- This request is made in accordance with section 51ABZZD(2)(a) and (c) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). This means that while the ACCC may take into account submissions or information received after the due date, it is not required to do so.
- In responding to the questions below or when providing a submission, please highlight and/or mark any confidential information and indicate why the information is confidential (as brief reasons in footnotes in your response or submission, or in a separate document such as the ACCC's general confidentiality claims template). The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are outlined at the end of this document.

Questions

1. Outline any concerns regarding the impact of the Acquisition on competition, including if one is a major supplier to competitors of the other.

--

2. Provide any additional information or comments that you consider relevant to the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition.

3. Provide a brief description of your business or organisation, including any commercial relationships with Publicis and/or LiveRamp.

Questions to customers

4. Describe what data ingestion and unification (or closely related) services your organisation acquires and how the services are procured, including whether your organisation procures these services independently or in combination with other products, and whether you acquire these services from a single provider or multiple.

5. In the event that LiveRamp's services were only available when used with other related Publicis services, would this affect your choice of provider for the other related services? Please explain why/why not.

6. What would be involved in switching your data ingestion and unification services provider? Please consider factors such as costs to switch, data ownership, and data interoperability/neutrality.

Questions to ad-tech providers and advertising agencies

7. If LiveRamp were to make changes to access, integration, or interoperability, how would this impact your usage of its services? For instance, would you use a competitor?

8. Do you consider that changes to access, integration, or interoperability in LiveRamp's data unification and ingestion services could materially affect your ability to compete and provide the services you currently offer? Please explain why/why not.

Confidentiality of responses

During the ACCC's assessment of a notified acquisition, the ACCC may receive information that is properly regarded as being confidential, and which is provided to the ACCC in confidence. The ACCC is committed to treating this information responsibly and in accordance with the law. The ACCC understands the importance of confidentiality to parties involved in a notified acquisition, as well as to third parties that provide information to the ACCC.

The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of the confidential information consistent with the ACCC's statutory functions
- confidential information may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the information as confidential, and
- the ACCC may disclose the confidential information to other third parties if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the Act. This includes disclosures made in the performance of official duties or functions, which include transparency requirements which are part of the merger control regime.

For further information on confidentiality, see the ACCC's Quick guide on providing confidential information to the ACCC.
