

Questionnaire: VetPartners - VetLove

MN-75031

Deadline to respond: 16 October 2026

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) is currently assessing VetPartners Australia Pty Ltd (VetPartners)'s proposed acquisition of 100% of the share capital in VetLove Holdings Pty Ltd, the parent entity of the VetLove group which holds majority shareholdings in the group's 15 veterinary clinics (together, VetLove) (the Acquisition).

For further information about the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition, see the ACCC's Acquisitions Register.

The ACCC is assessing the impact of the Acquisition on competition and is seeking your views. The ACCC invites you to provide submissions or information in response to the questions below by 16 October 2026 via email to mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Submission re: VetPartners - VetLove. The ACCC must complete its assessment within strict statutory timelines which also impacts the time available for consultation.

If you would prefer to speak to a member of the ACCC case team, please email mergers@acc.gov.au with the title Request for call re: VetPartners - VetLove. Someone from the case team will contact you to find a suitable time for a call.

Please note that:

- This request is made in accordance with section 51ABZZD(2)(a) and (c) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act). This means that while the ACCC may take into account submissions or information received after the due date, it is not required to do so.
- In responding to the questions below or when providing a submission, please highlight and/or mark any confidential information and indicate why the information is confidential (as brief reasons in footnotes in your response or submission, or in a separate document such as the ACCC's general confidentiality claims template). The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are outlined at the end of this document.

Questions - General

1. Provide a brief description of your business or organisation, including any commercial relationships with VetPartners, VetLove and/or any other businesses operated by VetPartners.

2. Outline any concerns regarding the impact of the Acquisition on competition, including if any clinics operated by VetPartners and VetLove are close competitors, if there are certain locations where there are few alternative clinics to VetPartners and VetLove, if there are certain services for which they are close competitors, or if any business operated by VetPartners or VetLove is a major supplier to competitors.

3. Provide any additional information or comments that you consider relevant to the ACCC's assessment of the Acquisition.

Questions for owners and operators of veterinary clinics

4. Describe the nature and level of competition in the local areas, city/region or state in which you operate (for example, the strength or number of competitors, and whether the nature and level of competition differs by the type of services offered). As a part of your response, describe whether there are certain areas in which the removal of VetLove as a competitor will have more of an impact on competition than others.

5. Explain how far pet owners are willing to travel to attend a veterinary clinic (and whether this varies by postcode or urban/regional areas), and what impacts their decision when choosing between alternative clinics (e.g. price, quality, service, location, or anything else).

6. Identify any factors that influence the establishment or expansion of veterinary clinics in Australia (e.g., obtaining a suitable premises and equipment, requirements for professional registration, large capital expenditure etc). As a part of your response, explain the estimated timeframes for the establishment or expansion of veterinary clinics in Australia.

Confidentiality of responses

During the ACCC's assessment of a notified acquisition, the ACCC may receive information that is properly regarded as being confidential, and which is provided to the ACCC in confidence. The ACCC is committed to treating this information responsibly and in accordance with the law. The ACCC understands the importance of confidentiality to parties involved in a notified acquisition, as well as to third parties that provide information to the ACCC.

The standard terms on which the ACCC accepts confidential information are:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of the confidential information consistent with the ACCC's statutory functions
- confidential information may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the information as confidential, and
- the ACCC may disclose the confidential information to other third parties if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the Act. This includes disclosures made in the performance of official duties or functions, which include transparency requirements which are part of the merger control regime.

For further information on confidentiality, see the ACCC's confidentiality quick guide.
